

A JUBILEE PRAYER

O God, as we celebrate the Jubilee Year may we always rejoice in your love. Through the intercession of Mary and in union with the Apostles, Martyrs and righteous of every age may this year be a time of grace, consolation, and peace for all who walk in the light of Christ. Amen.

Archdiocese of Miami 1958-2008

Walking in the Light of Christ 50 YearsNOVEMBER 25, 2007 TEACHING: INRI

Atop a crucifix in a Catholic church or home is sometimes found the inscription INRI. The letters commonly appear on a banner affixed to the uppermost quadrant of the cross above the head of the crucified Christ. Not all crucifixes bear the letters, but many do.

The letters abbreviate the Latin inscription 'Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum,' or "Jesus the Nazarene, King of the Jews." According to John's Gospel, Pontius Pilate ordered this inscription to give the name and hometown of the victim and to publicize the grounds for his execution. Soldiers wrote the words in Hebrew, Latin and Greek - the languages of the Old Testament, the Roman government and the New Testament. In Christian art, the words are sometimes completely spelled out, but more commonly the Latin text is rendered as a simple acronym.

The chief priests of the Jews objected, saying that Pilate should have written, " 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.' " Pilate refused to change the text. His reply became a chilling aphorism of authority in Latin: 'Quod scripsi scripsi.' " "What I have written, I have written." Thus Pilate let stand the words intended for condemnation, now transformed as affirmation. Pilate would not acknowledge the kingship of Jesus in the trial, but he proclaimed it publicly - if sarcastically - on the cross.

The inscription appears in the other Gospels each time with slightly different wording. These are the only known words written about Jesus during his lifetime. To believers, they affirm the humanity and divine royalty of Jesus.

In Rome, the Church of the Holy Cross in Jerusalem claims to have the relic of the original sign.

November 14, 2007

Dear Friends in Christ,

While Tropical Storm Noel did not hit South Florida, our brothers and sisters in the Caribbean suffered much from its relentless winds and torrential rains. The loss of life has exceeded 100 and many more have been left without homes, churches and places to work. In the noble Christian tradition of care for all the Churches, we are in solidarity with our brothers and sisters who are suffering the aftermath of Tropical Storm Noel.

Therefore, I am calling for a special collection to assist the Church in Haiti, the Dominican Republic and Cuba in their efforts to recover from Tropical Storm Noel and to bring solace, care and support to the faithful. The collection will be taken up in all parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Miami over the weekend of December 1st & 2nd, 2007.

As we in the Archdiocese of Miami reflect on our many blessings during this Jubilee Year, we also recall the many occasions that this Catholic community has come to the aid of our brothers and sisters in other parts of this country and beyond in their hour of need. We know personally the devastation caused by hurricanes and tropical storms and our love for Christ and His Church impels us to reach out to those who are suffering. I thank you in advance for your generosity and assure you that your donation will go directly to assist those who are striving to recover from Tropical Storm Noel.

May the Lord continue to bless you and your loved ones abundantly. With personal good wishes, I am

Sincerely in the Lord,
John C. Favalora, Archbishop of Miami

STEWARDSHIP: "Sharing God's Gifts"

As Catholics, we give in gratitude for what God has given to us; this is what motivates us. We give because of faithfulness. The offertory collection for November 18, 2007 was $7,477.50 with 178 envelopes being used out of 332. The weekly collection must be $7,993.00 in order for St. Matthew Parish to meet our operating expenses: utilities, assessments, etc. In using your offertory envelopes each week, please make sure your envelope number is listed on it. If you do not know your envelope number, please call the Parish Office and we will gladly give it to you. If you are currently receiving offertory envelopes in the mail and are not using them each week, please call the Parish Office.

Kindly remember in your prayers the sick people of our parish, people confined to their homes, hospitals and nursing homes especially: Josephine Broccoli, Jack Talavera, Donna Irish, Victoria Otero, Santo Bettina, Donna M. ADOPT A FAMILY FOR THANKSGIVING
'THANK YOU'

Thank you for your continued support of St. Matthew Outreach and their 'Adopt A Family for Thanksgiving' program. Less fortunate families in our community were provided with complete Thanksgiving dinners - dinners they would not have had without your generous contributions. Thank you to Betty Dadio and all her volunteers for their hard work in collecting, organizing and distributing these meals. God bless all of you.
